It's been there forever and there is a smoking and non smoking area which is totally useless because there is no partition of any sort between the two.

they serve good 'ol high cholesterol breakfast food dripping in bacon grease and butter, ll the locals and toursits mingle, read the morning paper and chow down while drinking mass quantities of black coffee and breathing in the cigarette smoke laden air and listening to 70's rock on the radio.

Nothing like a little Led Zep and carbon monoxide with your eggs in the morning.

I go there for breakfast whenever I need a cholesterol hit.

Benny is an old friend and did the demo's here a couple of years ago that were used in the production of a CD called Old Hands by the Yonder Mountain String Band for which he wrote many of the songs.

The other players on this project are members of the Broke Mountain Bluegrass band. I did a demo session for them back in 2003 which opened up some doors for them on the Bluegrass festival circuit. They have now split up but have bought in a new guitarist named John Stigley who is nothing short of unbelievable. I've got him set up on a mic here in the control room and last night I could have sworn I w
