It's funny how we end up always back at the things we love, but not =

Funny indeed. I'm playing, writing, and recording more music by far = since I got my nursing degree and started working full time at the = hospital. Music will always be my first love, and having my "spare =

since I got my nursing degree and started working full time at the =

Hi all,

I had a 'once per year' senior in high school start to study with =
me tonight. =20

He is using his experience here for his senior project. I was = giving him an=20

overview of the studio build, hardware, software and life that I = live as an owner=20

operator/musician. His reaction was what I had expected. = Impressed and=20

overwhelmed. He will be attending college for audio engineering = in September.

Most oddly, I also started feeling overwhelmed encompassing my=20 accomplishments to date, albeit modest, and goals I still have. =

In verbalizing=20

it tonight I realized I am truly lucky to still be as motivated as = when I was in=20

high school dreaming about how my career might unfold.

I hope we all appreciate the complexity and fulfillment of our = artistic/scientific=20 selves. The rewards can seemingly be taken for granted as in my = case. =20

All better now. =20

Yeah, that's why I put "spare time" in quotes. :)
