As opposed to that unplanned one we just had. ;o) Sorry about that, and me having an extra long day at work and all too. So seeing as how the router crashed, I'm going to do a firmware upgrade. There's some fairly major bug fixes I'm not running so hopefully it will smooth things out.

It should only be for an hour or so. Hopefully not even that. It will be done around 0:00GMT 10/6/06.

But to those who were wondering, no it had nothing to do with the server crashing due to bad UPS power as was the case a few months back. That problem is dealt with, and not coming back, and nobody here will be shelling out for a new router! ;o)

Cheers,
Kim.

Hey Kim.... server was down. I'm not sure you noticed. Was it the battery? Some people say I'm not very darned observant, but I notice things As long as it doesn't happen again any time soon... DeeJ might have to off himself if that happened.

Can somebody confirm that we're back from the outside for me?

27 minutes offline... not too bad...

Cheers,
Kim.

Excellent. Thanks. NNTP anyone?

Cheers,
Kim.
