Hi folks. I started some research into the history of PARIS when I started the Wiki; that soon got overtaken by more practical concerns (like the Bugs/Troubleshooting page). But I've put up the beginnings of a PARIS timeline at the Wiki, and if anyone has anything they want to suggest should be included, go ahead and post it in thread here. If anyone's got an idea of Chuck's original NG's start and stop dates, I definitely want to include them too.

I've also stuck a few upcoming 10th anniversary dates in (I do think "10 years after discontinuation" is definitely something one should celebrate) - and yes, we are getting that old .
