Well, that link doesn't seem to be working... but is this supposed to be some new Antress stuff?

Frankly, I've found about two of them to be useful so far. The others, I just don't really like the sound of all that much.

I really like the EQ on their 1081-alike, though!

Well I hope you find the new API eqs nice. The site is currently down as I just checked so the link is right and hopefully they'll get it up soon.

If it's version 2.7, you can get it here:
