We threw out some fried chicken earlier today into a big dumpster that sits between our house and the property next door. A little while ago, the dogs started going absolutely bananas. I looked outside and there was this huge black bear digging through the dumpster.....and I mean huge. One of the biggest I've ever seen. Unfortunately, he's pretty bold and would not spook when we yelled at him to try to scare him off. That's bad news for bears around here. I have noticed a few of the local trashcans overturned in the mornings. Once the neighborhood starts complaining, the animal control dept will trap him and relocate him and if he returns, they will kill him. I'm going to get a bear proof trashcan for the organic stuff we throw out. I'd hate to see this guy get popped. He's magnificent, but easily a top of the food chain predator.

We're got a guy who is living in a Winnebago on the property right now..a friend of a friend ....(shit like this happens all the time in Colorado....people will camp anywhere in the summer)....we just call him DuPree. He bought a used, full sized refrigerator yesterday and has it hooked into the power grid. It is sitting outside his Winnebago, next to a tree. I can't wait until he goes grocery shipping and Mr. Bear gets a whiff of the goodies inside.....and it also ought to be interesting when the rains start and this big electrical appliance is sitting out in the mud, becoming one with the "ground". He also has a couple of cats that he just lets roam around outside. If they come in our back yard they will be greeted warmly by Crash and Muffin.. If they go the other direction they are right in the middle of "Pet Cemetery Road"...and then again, there are coyotes around here.....and bears. I feel sorry for these kitties. I hope they survive their vacation.

You should see the plastic top on the dumpster. Looks like he got up on top of the damn thing and jumped up and down until he collapsed the thing. It's bent double. Heavy bear. this was not an insubstantial lid.

I'm going to have my camera ready in case he pays DuPree's (our Winnebago camper) refrigerator a visit tonight.

Me either. This bear is not scared of people who yell at it. I don't know if it would run if someone was walking around making a bunch of racket and it could see them. Usually, they run. Who knows though?

You don't want to get between a bear and food, or a bear and cubs. They get testy and can do real damage, even a brown bear. Strong and well armed animals...
