Well hello there everyone... Finally I managed to get it to work... functions are all good.. but not a single led is on? had it tested by a cpl of elecrtions (studio gear repairing ones.. they said nothing seems to be wrong with it !!!!!) any body got any idea ? would the Wipers on AA's fixing C-16 have anything to do with that.. (which I think it's sorta remote though)... and by the way guys..thanks for the very positive inputs the other day :)))
