ok i'm helping a friend who is on 2.2 and i have a number of questions because i can't seem to remember the answers. i don't use paris during recording anymore.. it's just a summing box for me now. paris just sits on my 98se machine waiting to do what it does that we all love.

#1. can 2.2 and 3.0 exist comfortably on the same 98se machine?

maybe we take 1 question at a time?

thanks!
