long to reply (been away on business) but i am interested in your c-16 (iff still available) as for U.P.S cost , i got some paris cards and a mec module from the states last year (form the sonic, in California i think) and was a fair bit cheaper than that but the c-16 is quite heavy so that might account for higher price?

Do you have a pic of the unit at all is it in good condition?
if s
