anyone posting/reading here based in the UK?

I need a 'friendly' to help me with some testing as I may have a hardware problem.

thanks

Back in the 90's there was a Parisite named Angus who had a big studio in Scotland. Perhaps you knew him if you were a distributor? I can't remember his last name or the name of the place, but it was a fairly substantial commercial facility. I have a (perhaps inaccurate) recollection is that he may have migrated to Nuendo. You might check that forum and search for posts under the name Angus.....I dunno.....wish I could help. Half my family tree are Scots (McLardy - the other half is Joyce - Welsh/Irish by way of Normandy circa 1066) and I've never even been to either place.

I'd love to come for a visit, but it's not in the cards right now.

Best of luck,
DJ

Wasn't it Angus that won different prizes for his jazz recordings with Paris?

I think it was Caber Music with Tom Bancroft that won jazz prizes.
I found this old site that can be a help:

<http://www.cabermusic.com/>

Thanks guys, I'll start the paper trail and see what follows.

there was also a (post production, I think) studio in Leith (edinburgh) that were stalwarts of the system, can't for the life of me remember the name, but its worth checking into.

thanks again

Hi Frazer,

I'm all good now thanks, bad pin on my mec cable (thankfully).

Good to know your in the UK though (that makes 2 possibly 3 that I know of, and the guy from emu that still has one!)

where you based?

PS sorry I don't have a spare 8 out card, I'm now using both of mine.
