Hi Mike,

I agree with Dimitrios. Your Drum and Vocal Plates have become my go to ever since I bought them. The standard Paris Plate has been lost in the shuffle now. An equal quality room would be a nice addition if you find the time.

I'll take a look at what's there. I think there is a room and a small room.

Can you tell I'm a plate a hall guy?

I've literally spent the last 3 months doing nothing but work on the PSCL.

I've been toying with rewriting using objects. We'll see.

I'll take a look at the algos tonight.

All the best,

Mike
