Took me a while to understand the true dangers of DHMO. Now I am a concerned citizen too. Thanks, Don.

The presence of DHMO in some Apple and Dell computer ventilation systems is most alarming. Why isn't McCloskey all over this?

It takes more energy to create a single ounce of DHMO than it takes to refine a barrel of oil. Nevertheless, the government will pay you a subsidy if you quit growing wheat and plant your acreage in flora that will produce DHMO.

Is DHMO a key ingredient in Pro-Tools software, or not? Lamont, concerned citizens want to know!
