I bought one last year. It is very cool. Great clean tones, like glass. Good models of distorted amps too. I don't have the "limited edition" (ok, so it's red). I have the original (vintage?) black model.

I have one of these (not in red) and it sounds very good for the size. The emulations are pretty good. A nice travel piece.

I was thinking it might be good to play live in front of 75,000 people with. Isn't it that good? Got line out?
hehe,
John
