I am very sympathetic to the cause of Black america and know that the white Mutherfuckers running the show in washington (to quote Miles

See Immediately you think we're just talking about Poor Black people-It's not that at all. It's a certain attitude and fiber that they have -a certain spirit that is missing from these people that are part of Bush's administration.

If you sat down with some of the folks I know they would explain to you exactly what their story is. I'm not one to sit here and think that as a white person I am qualified to talk about this but I have been in the middle of many of their conversations views and attitudes and I will tell you that they are not thrilled with George Bush and the republican party and shit-tons of OT, but not much PARIS. For someone like me who likes to pop in occasionally and see what the group is up to (and make sure people

This board is really the only place that I can go to make sure that this sad when you realize that the top brains on this forum could EASILY form their own company doing something like PARIS, and would have an immediate client-base at hand.

this forum would be behind that.I can say that I wish I knew someone who is thriving in this economy.The folks in the upper levels who thrive on Greed are.

The Music business I used to thrive on is in Shambles and it is not safe for anybody who wants to make a living to depend on it.It is based on the greediest of the greedy right now.

had the exact opposite of nightmares - an even deeper and more trusting faith in God. (Very timely... two months later, I was diagnosed with an incurable cancer). The only downside to the stents is that pastrami is now off my diet. And pizza. But here in Alaska, neither are worth eating anyway. Ain't no Carnegie or Totonno's in this neighborhood.

Nappy, I would assume that, if you are having nightmares, they are related to stress. Certainly you are in one of the scariest emotional places any of us could find ourselves.

Be very encouraged: I have several friends that have gone through kidney transplants - one just a year ago, the others over the last decade. They are all thriving and lead virtually the same lives they have led all along.

It's that blanket mentality and generalization of people ie: "The French" that undermine the human race.

If you think that US foreign policy (or any country for that matter) has been Ivory clean throughout history, you are either extremely ignorant or just in denial.

I disagree with a lot of French and US foreign policy and may disagree with Bush, but I wouldn't make a statement that "Americans are Assholes" because that's just not true. I would bet that the average French person and American have the same heart, politics aside. Once people realize that it may actually open some constructive dialog.

I am sure there are French Paris users here, and you are adding nothing constructive to this forum. Grow up.

I've got a couple of WD1600jb drives that I purchased some time ago to use as audio drives for Paris, running under win98.

I had no problems formatting them, but soon after commencing a job, all hell broke loose. Cross-linked files everywhere.

I pulled the first and tried the second...same thing.

Never had this problem with any 120gb drives.

Is there something I am missing? Does 98 not like anything above 120gb? I have since used one of the drives in my cubase box running XP, and there's no sign of any problems.

I hope I don't have to stick to 120's for my remaining Paris years.

Thanks

Kimgoing from memory, I think there has to be a patch applied that you can get from microsoft for 98 to handle that size drive.

<http://support.microsoft.com>

search the knowledge base and see if I remember correctly for it.
