Is there a setting to have the MECs terminate, as I can't get a green light on the Big Ben without a terminator. I wonder if the Digiface has a jumper for self termination. I'll have to look into that, as it's a tight squeeze on the back of that unit.

thanks Just use a plain old ethernet cable. As far as recognizing, you might need a tester or just plug a pc to a hub to another pc and see if the cable work.

I am spec'ing these for a client. What a great idea...

Sooo why is a toilet better off than a monitor mixer?

A toilet only has to take crap from one butthole at a time...

Oddly enough, that was our reaction to it as well. We're both Wright-o-philes, and have visited a number of his houses.
Fallingwater was the first one where we both simultaneously came to the conclusion that we would be perfectly happy living there for the rest of our lives.

I had read about it, seen photos, but you simply don't appreciate the brilliance and genius of the design, nor the sheer magnificence of the integration with Bear Run and the surrounding forest until you're actually standing there. It's breathtaking. Changed my outlook on architecture, design, and also how I look at life.

Here's what one set of the Coonley windows looks like so you know what I'm talking about....

I've seen those. Beautiful.

What he said, what he said!

We were going through on the tour and going, hey! here's Katie's bedroom! Here's the study!

My favorite was the stairway down to the river in the living room...

I don't think I would be able to leave the place if I lived there.

DCYep

I have a system in my studio. They are excellent and work well with the Paris. I built my studio with these things as part of the plan so the CAT5 cable is in the walls already. the added bonus to that is I get to take my C-16 to the other side of the glass when I am tracking by myself and just run it down the CAT 5 to the EDS card...no open doors... just like pampers..no leaks.

Next thing I know, he's giving himself a personal tour of Mount Everest, and then pretty much the rest of the department is downloading this thing. So, congratulations, sir. You have single-handedly destroyed all productivity in the Wheaton College Media Resources department this afternoon.

I'm proud of you, man.

see, one problem is that i can watch almost all US TV stations and buy, read and understand almost all US press. so i can regularly get an idea about whats going on in the US, and germans usually are very interested in that, cause, despite the current arguments, germany still looks up to the US. its a bit like with an older brother you currently dont talk much to, even though most germans probably would have a problem in admitting that.

on the other hand, i can tell from all the BS here that most of you people have not the slightest idea about whats going in germany. you talk about us not criticizing muslims and not asking anything from those countries, yet just as we speak t
