So this guy gets pulled over for speeding & the cop goes up to the car & says "OK pal, what's the hurry? According my radar gun you were doing 70 in a 55 zone, you know." Guy says: "Sorry officer, I'm an artist & I'm on my way to the opening of my new exhibit at the museum & I'm running late" Cop doesn't believe him & asks, kinda rudely: "Oh yeah? Exactly what kind of artist are you?" Guy says: I'm a sculptor - I sculpt giant-size replicas of body parts... ears, lips, hands... my new exhibit features a 72-inch high marble rectum!" Cop says: "What???" That's not art, that's just crazy! What the hell is somebody gonna do with a six-foot tall asshole?" Guy says: "I dunno... put him out by the side of the road & give him a radar gun?"

:D
