Doug Wellington is in Tuscon. I don't have his phone # any more but it's OK with me if you go down there and wander the streets asking people if they know him.....then if you find him you could ask him if he knows anyone who has a 24 track.....or you could just wander the streets mumbling things about needing a 24 track until someone complains and you get arrested.

Hell man.....I'll drive down there and meet you and we can both get arrested. I haven't been arrested since I quit drinking.

Wavelab studios, Tucson.

But wander around mumbling for a while first if you prefer, just to keep things interesting...
