
Subject: UAD-1 Neve bundle & PARIS on XP?

Hi all,

I've seen a lot of posts re: the quality of the UAD Neve EQs and compressor. Yeah, it feels like time to spend more money! They're having a sale right now and I can get the Neve bundle for $450.

Before I spend the $$$, is anyone using this with PARIS 3.0 on XP?

Thanks!

Mark

I am. For the most part it works great. I did notice an error on quitting Paris that I hadn't noticed before about the time I started using the new UAD software (with the Neve stuff). It doesn't happen all the time..in fact, it seldom happens, but it's an error I haven't seen before (can't recall what it says off hand). Actually using the plugs is great though, they sound great. I highly recommend them.

Cool! Thanks Rod.

Which VST wrapper are you using? Also wondering which version of the UAD software you're using as well.

Looks like a great deal for $450.

I hardly use any of the other processors anymore. For me it's the Neves, the 1176, LA-2A, Fairchild and Plate 140.
